“Start Drive” at the intersection of Hwy 5 and Hwy 515/US 76 in Blue Ridge, Georgia.

1. Lake Blue Ridge Dam and Recreation Area

291 N River Rd, Mineral Bluff, GA
The dam stands 200 feet tall and stretches 1,500 feet across, creating the stunning 3,290-acre Lake Blue Ridge. Visitors can enjoy scenic views, boating, fishing, and hiking. From “Start Drive,” go east on Hwy 515/US 76 for 2.6 miles. Turn right onto River Rd. Destination will be on right. For scenic views of Lake Blue Ridge, from the dam, continue on River Rd. Take a right onto Old US 76, recreation area will be on the left.

2. Old Skeenah Mill

20 Skeenah Gap Rd, Blue Ridge, GA
The Mill, located inside Skeenah Creek Campground, was built in 1848 by Willis Woody, who brought his family to the Skeenah Valley (named after the Cherokee word for “black bear”) in 1839. A water-powered sawmill was also located on the creek. The Skeenah Mill was once a popular place for neighbors to gather while they waited for their wheat or corn to be ground.

3. Toccoa Swinging Bridge

FS Rd 816, Blue Ridge, GA
This 270-foot-long hiking bridge is the longest swinging bridge east of the Mississippi River. The Swinging Bridge over the Toccoa River is located on the Benton MacKaye Trail and the Duncan Ridge National Recreation Trail. The bridge was built by the US Forest Service in cooperation with the Appalachian Trail Club in 1977.
From the Old Skeenah Mill, turn left onto Skeenah Gap Rd, then a quick left onto GA 60 S. Continue on for .8 miles, take a sharp right on FS Rd 816. Parking will be 3 miles ahead, then a short hike to the river and bridge.

4. Chattahoochee Forest National Fish Hatchery

4730 Rock Creek Rd, Suches, GA
The Fish Hatchery plays a vital role in conserving Georgia’s native aquatic species, raising over a million rainbow trout annually, which are stocked in regional streams, rivers, and lakes for public fishing. Visitors can tour the facility, feed the fish, enjoy the scenic picnic areas, and explore nearby hiking trails.
From the Toccoa Swinging Bridge, continue back down FS Rd 816, turn right onto GA 60 S and go 2.7 miles. Turn right on Rock Creek Rd and go 4.7 miles. Destination will be on the right.

Side Trip - Cooper Creek Road This scenic 6-mile drive leads to two campgrounds, hiking trails, trout-filled streams, and Sea Creek Falls. Along the way, stop at the Cooper Creek Store to stretch your legs, grab a bite to eat, or pick up a cold drink.

From the Fish Hatchery, continue back on Rock Creek Rd, turning right back onto GA 60 S. Continue on for 4.3 miles, turning left onto Cavendar Gap Rd where road will turn into Cooper Creek Rd.

5. Woody Gap Vista & Preachers Rock

GA-60, Suches, GA
Here, the Appalachian Trail crosses GA 60 and opens up to Preachers Rock, a 2-mile round trip hike to a stunning overlook. The gap is named in honor of Arthur Woody, one of Georgia’s first forest rangers and a pioneering conservationist who was instrumental in reforesting the North Georgia mountains and reintroducing native wildlife to the region. Just past the nearby lake, his historic home still stands on the left side of the road.
From the Fish Hatchery, continue back down Rock Creek Rd, turn right onto GA 60 S and go 14 miles. Destinations will be to the left.

6. Lake Winfield Scott Recreation Area

439 Winfield Scott Road, Suches, GA
