June 2023

Selected as one of the South's Best Mountain Towns by Southern Living magazine.

1 GET AWAY COMPLETELY

If you live anywhere in the Southeast, you're within driving distance of Blue Ridge, Georgia's coolest mountain town — only 90 miles north of Atlanta via I-575, but a million miles away from it all.

With 106,000 acres of Chattahoochee National Forest, 300 miles of hiking trails and 100 miles of trout streams, Blue Ridge is the perfect place to get away completely. Rent a luxury mountain cabin and wake up to cool, quiet mornings on the porch with a cup of coffee. After a day of fun and adventure, finish the day in the same place you started, enjoying a glorious mountain sunset. You may never want to leave the cabin, but don't miss out on the fun of exploring the North Georgia mountains.

BEAUTIFUL MOUNTAIN SCENERY

Georgia's Blue Ridge is simply beautiful. To the south is the Aska Adventure Area, Springer Mountain, Amicalola Falls and the head of the Appalachian Trail. To the east is the Blairsville/Hiawassee area with Vogel State Park and Brasstown Bald. To the west is the 40,000-acre Cohutta Wilderness, and to the north is the Copper Basin of Tennessee, the Ocoee Scenic Byway and Ocoee River whitewater. The Blue Ridge area has more luxury mountain vacation rentals than anywhere in the Georgia mountains, including cabins with spectacular mountain views, on rushing creeks, the Toccoa River and Lake Blue Ridge. If you prefer a location closer to town, there are also hotels, bed & breakfast inns and intown Blue Ridge lofts.

3 THE TOWN OF BLUE RIDGE

Blue Ridge was once considered an elite health resort because of its pure mineral waters. It was established as a railroad town, with the depot at its heart. Visitors would ride the train to town, eat dinner and take a leisurely walk to the mineral springs after dinner. Today, visitors still ride the train and take a walk along Main Street, enjoying the antique and specialty shops, galleries, restaurants, small-town atmosphere and friendly people. First-time visitors are amazed at the number and quality of shops and restaurants in downtown Blue Ridge.

4 MCCAYSVILLE & THE COPPER BASIN

FINE DINING & FUN EATERIES

Local food is an essential part of the trip when you visit Georgia's Blue Ridge and the Copper Basin. There are some things you just have to try: local mountain trout from Toccoa Riverside Restaurant or Harvest on Main; fried apple pies and apple cider doughnuts from Mercier Orchards; a cupcake from the Sweet Shoppe. Dine at casual upscale restaurants like The Black Sheep or Cucina Rustica, or at fun eateries like Chester Brunnenmeyer's Bar & Grill or the Boat Dock Bar & Grill on Lake Blue Ridge.

BLUE RIDGE'S ARTSY VIBE

Blue Ridge has an artsy vibe, with a vibrant arts scene and great arts center and community theater. Plus, live music is featured at many restaurants, wineries and breweries. The Blue Ridge Mountains Arts Center, located in the beautifully renovated historic courthouse in downtown Blue Ridge, houses exhibits, a pottery and kiln studio, five artistic guilds, five galleries and an artist-in-residence program. Don't miss the gift shop and rotating seasonal exhibits.

7 BLUE RIDGE SCENIC RAILWAY

Don't miss the train! Take a ride on the Blue Ridge Scenic Railway, which runs along the Toccoa River from Blue Ridge to McCaysville. Board the train at the historic depot in Blue Ridge and ride in beautifully restored train cars. The view changes with the seasons – wildflowers and mountain laurel in the spring, rhododendron in the summer and gorgeous foliage in the fall. Open March through December. Call 1-877-413-8724 or visit brscenic.com.

Two of the greatest outdoor adventures in the world begin in Fannin County. Both the Appalachian and Benton MacKaye Trails start at the top of Springer Mountain. There are over 300 miles of hiking trails in the area, including short trails suitable for beginning hikers and families. Nearby, visit Georgia's highest elevation at Brasstown Bald and explore trails and waterfalls throughout the mountains.

- » Aska Trails: 17-mile hiking and biking trail system ranging from 1 to 5.5 miles open all year. Suitable for all levels of hikers; challenging for mountain bikers.
- » Appalachian Trail (AT): Begins in Fannin County at the top of Springer Mountain off FS 42. Favorite hikes include the trail to the terminus on Springer Mountain, Three Forks and Long Creek Falls.
- » Benton MacKaye Trail (BMT): Footpath of nearly 400 miles through the Appalachian mountains of the southeastern U.S. Favorite hikes in Fannin County are the hike to the Swinging Bridge on the Toccoa River and Falls Branch Falls.

- » Ocoee Whitewater Center Trails: 30 miles of trails for hiking and mountain biking at the Whitewater Center, located on Hwy. 64 in Tennessee.

There are 16 waterfalls within a short drive of Blue Ridge on our self-guided waterfall map, which you can download on blueridgemountains.com. Here are a few favorites:

» Amicalola Falls – The tallest cascading waterfall east of the Mississippi River is located about 22 miles from Ellijay on Hwy. 52.

» Long Creek Falls – A favorite waterfall hike on the Appalachian Trail is from Three Forks to Long Creek Falls. Located off FS 58 in the Noontootla Creek area.

» Falls Branch Falls – The closest waterfall to Blue Ridge is a double waterfall about 10 miles from town at the edge of the Rich Mountain WPA.

» Helton Creek Falls – There are two falls on Helton Creek, which is off US 19/129 about 11 miles south of Blairsville.

» Benton Falls – Located on the Benton Falls Trail in the Overhill country of southeastern Tennessee off the Ocoee Scenic Byway at Chilhowee Recreation Area.

Take Care of Blue Ridge

FANNIN COUNTY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Visit blueridgemountains.com/things-to-do/outdoors/take-care/ to learn how you can help

The best waterparks are those created by nature, and there are plenty of options in the Blue Ridge Area:

» Toccoa River: Tube, kayak or raft the river either above or below the Lake Blue Ridge dam.

» Morganton Point: Chattahoochee National Forest recreation area on Lake Blue Ridge with camping, fishing, swimming beach and picnic areas, kayak and paddleboard rentals.

» Lake Blue Ridge Marina: Rent a pontoon or a paddleboard.

PLAYING IN THE WATER

» Ocoee River Whitewater Rafting: Raft the wild waters of the Ocoee River.

» Ocoee Whitewater Center: The Olympic kayak slalom course is perfect for wading and sliding over the rocks when the river is not running (weekdays). Be sure to bring water shoes for the kids.

See a full list of marinas and outfitters in the Trip Planner at the back of this guide or online at blueridgemountains.com

11 PARKS & RECREATION AREAS

The North Georgia mountains are overflowing with beautiful places to picnic, fish and play:

» Lake Blue Ridge Dam Recreation Area is located beside the dam, with picnic tables and fishing platform.

» Tammen Park on the Toccoa River in Blue Ridge has picnic pavilions, canoe/kayak launch and fishing platform.

Horseshoe Bend Park

» Lake Blue Ridge Dayuse Area off Aska Road is a passive park with lake access, boat launch and hiking trail.

» Sandy Bottoms Canoe Launch is near the Shallowford Bridge area on Old Dial Road.

» Fannin County Park off Hwy. 5 has picnic areas, ballfields, bike and walking trails, and community center.

» Horseshoe Bend Park in McCaysville has picnic pavilions, playground, and access to the Toccoa River for fishing and wading.

» McCaysville City Park is a river park in town with playground, picnic tables, boat launch and fitness park.

LAKE BLUE RIDGE BOAT RAMPS

- » Lakewood Landing off Old Hwy. 76
- » Lake Blue Ridge Marina (ramp closed on weekends)
- » Lake Blue Ridge Dayuse Area
- » Morganton Point

For river access locations, download our self-guided tours 10 & 11 at blueridgemountains.com/things-to-do/scenic-drives-tours

The Trout Capital of Georgia, Fannin County has more than 100 miles of great trout fishing rivers, creeks and streams, including Jack's River, Conasauga River, Toccoa River, Rock Creek, Noon-tootla Creek and Cooper Creek. Consult the Georgia Guide to Trout Fishing, available free at the Visitor Center, for seasons, creel limits and size restrictions.

MERCIER ORCHARDS

Since 1943, four generations of the Mercier family have planted and raised 300 acres of apples, peaches and more.

Visit Mercier's and taste for yourself how a love of the land and dedication to quality are evident in every delicious basket of fruit. You can pick apples off the tree, buy fresh apple cider and enjoy the best fried apple pies – a true farm-to-table experience. The tasting room features homemade hard cider from the freshest Mercier-grown apples. Treat the family to a farm tractor tour and u-pick strawberries, blueberries, peaches and apples in season.

Also visit The Folk Collaborative, an old-fashioned apple orchard, market and bakery, and shop for locally grown fruits and veggies at the Downtown Blue Ridge Market and North Georgia Farmers Market during the summer months.
